

The US Department of Treasury (OFAC) and the US Department of Justice issue a joint Compliance note

The Compliance note provides common red flags that can alert the international community on the use of third-party intermediaries or trans-shipment points to evade Russian and Belarussian related sanctions, and obscure the true identities of Russian end users.

Please click here to read the full Compliance note.